Bwindi Impenetrable National Park

Your Ugandan safari starts here and now. With all of the incredible wildlife that this country has to offer, we know that you're keen to get started. And as soon as we introduce you to your guide and answer your questions, we'll get you out there exploring.

Prepare to be blown away by Bwindi Impenetrable National Park. Not only is this mountainous rainforest utterly gorgeous, but it has also been recognized as a Unesco World Heritage Site on account of its rich biodiversity and wealth of unique plants and animals. Bwindi is best known for supporting roughly 45% of the world's remaining mountain gorillas, but other wildlife includes the attractive L’Hoest’s monkey, a small population of forest elephants, and a seriously impressive checklist of 350 bird species.

Gorilla Valley Lodge

Lodge | Bordering Bwindi Impenetrable National Park without fences

Enjoy a superb view across to the misty forested mountains of Bwindi Impenetrable National Park from the terrace of your en-suite cottage at Gorilla Valley Lodge. This well-run lodge stands so close to the park boundary that you should see plenty of forest monkeys and birds. Gorillas sometimes emerge to forage in the sloping grounds.

Mgahinga Gorilla National Park

You'll see Mgahinga Gorilla National Park long before you reach the entrance gate. This is because it protects the Ugandan portion of the Virunga Mountains, a chain of nine freestanding volcanoes visible from miles away in every direction. Rising to 4,507m on the border of Rwanda and the Congo, the Virunga range is home to more than half the world's mountain gorillas, and these can be tracked on foot in Mgahinga. You might also see buffalo, bushbuck, golden monkey and colorful range-restricted birds such as Rwenzori turaco, strange weaver and scarlet-tufted malachite sunbird.

Accommodation | Day 3

Travellers Rest Hotel

Hotel

Step back in time at the Travellers Rest, a cozy small hotel founded on the outskirts of Kisoro in the 1950s. Only a short drive away from Mgahinga Gorilla National Park, this is a peaceful hotel whose 11 brightly decorated rooms surround a leafy courtyard that attracts plenty of interesting birds. Former guests here include the famous gorilla researchers Dian Fossey and George Schaller.
